

The issuance of a permit does not guarantee a space at Spotswood and Byford Animal Quarantine stations. However places can be guaranteed at Eastern Creek Quarantine station due to its large capacity.

Both Spotswood and Byford Quarantine stations are heavily booked and have limited space availability. Importers wishing to have their pets accommodated at either Spotswood or Byford Quarantine station should contact the relevant station to make a reservation for their pets before booking a flight to Australia.